County Attorney, Brandon Bellar, addressed the commission concerning the Cumberland Presbyterian Church Property. They no longer have a use for this property and would like to sell it. When Trousdale County sold the church this property, they reserved the right to use this piece of property as a polling place during elections. The county retained the first right of refusal. The potential new owners would purchase this property free of the reservations stated, if the county would give up their first right of refusal. No decision needs to be made tonight and Attorney James Bass would gladly meet with the commission on the 17th, commission work session, if that's what the commission wants.
